The March, 2005 Issue of Paintball 2Xtremes reveals a complete history of paintball, including all of the major game-shaping events; from the invention of the first paintball marker, to the last games played at the 2004 World Cup.

In this Collector's Issue, you'll see:

- Quotes from more than 100 players and industry representatives.
- More than 400 photos dating back to 1981.
- More facts about the roots of the game in this one issue than the last 19 years of all other paintball magazines combined.
- Gear, tournaments, scenario roots, politics, and more are all covered in this issue.
